Pam Blevins-Hinkle will keynote! It hard to believe it has been 10 years since this amazing woman was our keynote - choral conductor, song-leader, arts administrator, flutist, improviser, and lover of sacred song. Pam will also lead a workshop in the afternoon.

Following our keynote's workshop we will offer a workshop on making a besom. Dana Lusk, who joined the The Connection's Council this year will teach all of us how to make this traditional style of broom. A besom can be used in cleansing ceremonies to sweep out the negative energy in the air rather than sweeping the floor. These brooms are also used in handfasting ceremonies where the couple will jump the broom as a symbol of entering a new stage of life and leaving behind the old. Besoms make great housewarming and wedding gifts, symbolizing starting fresh and new, leaving behind your old dirt. You'll be making your besom from treasures you bring (ribbons, dried flowers, pentacle, crystals, or any other special items to decorate your besom). You can collect leaves, twigs, and other "found" materials from your walks at Pilgrim Park. Dana Lusk will also be bringing materials that you can use to build and decorate your besom.
