

Finding your Voice

UU Women's Connection 54th Annual Spring Conference

June 1-3, 2012
Pilgrim Park Retreat Center
Princeton, Illinois

Keynote: Pam Blevins Hinkle

Come discover the power of your own voice and your own creativity with musician Pam Blevins Hinkle.

“Expressing our essential and singular beauty is a sacred task. We must find and unleash our unique voice, personality, and calling in the world. The biggest barrier? Our own fear!” ...PBH

Pam is a classically-trained flutist, choral director of college and community choirs, and arts administrator. She plays (flute, percussion, kazoo, coffee cans and colanders!) and sings in a band called THIN AIR, whose performances are entirely improvised. Experience the power of group singing and the fun of musical games that create sounds from sublime to hilarious!

Also Featuring: Bonnie Ettinger, ALUUC's talented pianist, who with Pam creates an amazing music program each year at the UU Summer Assembly in Missouri.
